

5/3/66

DON FLICKINGER, M. D.
CONSULTANT

PRIVILEGED MEDICAL INFORMATION

1901 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20006

3 May 1966

Subject: Conference on Psychophysiological Tests and Evaluation
Procedures for Selection of Special Project Personnel.
1200 3 May 1966 - [redacted] Office.

STAT

To: Attendees; Doctors [redacted] and Flickinger.

STAT

A. Brief review of evaluation results on five volunteer applicants recently processed.

1. Similarity of methods and information derived but different evaluations derived therefrom: Mike & Don vs. Bob & Ken.
2. Estimation of adaptability and fitness against total matrix of factors involved.
 - a. total job environment
 - b. total home environment
 - c. dissociation from Air Force
 - d. Prolonged TDY's
 - e. Job satisfaction
 - f. TOB factor: current Pilots.
3. What value has four separate psychiatric/psychologic interviews.
 - a. feedback from current retrospective analysis re present project pilots.
4. Possibility of dividing major areas of information inputs to attain greater depth.

PERSONAL REPORT
NOT FOR DUPLICATION
DON FLICKINGER, CONSULTANT
1901 PENNA. AVE. N.W. WASH., D.C.

MORI/CDF

DON FLICKINGER, M. D.
CONSULTANT

=2=

1901 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20006
TEL: 338-7266

B. Plan for Next Group of Volunteers - 19-27 June 1966.

1. Firm up requirements for specific procedures to be carried out at Brooks AFB. Subsequent letter and conference with General Wenger and SAM key personnel.
2. Smooth out schedule of local events and consider other possible procedures: social, semi-social, professional.
3. Value of standardizing categories of information and scoring technics: discuss factors in relation to bias or weighting values.
4. Review procedures with view toward more specific outputs.
5. Finalize on methods of record keeping. Security vs Science and Knowledge.

STAT

C. Time and Place of next meeting to prepare complete schedule for next group of volunteers.

1. Confer with personnel people on preparation of SOP for processing volunteers.
2. Prepare budget estimates for AF-OSA.
3. Adjournment-1430.

ORIGINAL SIGNED BY
DON FLICKINGER, M. D.

Don Flickinger, M.D.
Consultant

DF:eo